Another great book for children wondering about the world we live in, and the whys and what is going to happen, questions. Can give them and the adults reading it to them, hope and peace! This book would well be read AFTER reading the book MARGIE ASKS WHY. Based on sound Biblical principles and written interestingly.

Beautiful presentation for kids. "Michael Asks Why" is written with the child in mind,in a clear, easy to read format. It answers tough questions about God, Satan, sin and why there is so much pain in this world. Definitely a good read and engaging book. There is an adult companion book entitled "The Great Controversy" that one can read to study along with their child. All points in both books are backed by the Bible and history. By the way, if you're looking for a deal, visit your local ABC (Adventist Book Center) store to get the same book sans shipping. Or, visit adventistbookcenter.com and call for a store location near you.
